

Justin Reyes

19FA-GAM340HA

OIP Cutscene Blocking

The Wandering Blade – Cutscene Blocking

Middle Cutscene: “A Fusion of wills”

Characters and World – The first part of the scene is to show the strength of Vepar and the need for more power to defeat him. From there the scene establishes the bond and growth in relationship between Sam and Alice, as well as a brief explanation of “Demon Fusion”, an ancient technique used by some demons that have bonded with the people of this world to gain power beyond belief.

Story/Plot – Sam is almost defeated by Vepar, but with Alice’s help, Sam and Alice fuse together into a super powerful demonic form. They use this new power to fight Vepar.

Tone – Tense and Urgent. Transforms into an Epic tone when Sam and Alice fuse together.

Gameplay – How do activate and use Demon Transformation to fight enemies

After the player defeats the boss, Count Bain, Vepar takes control of his body and transforms into his true demonic form. Sam tries to fight Vepar, but due to exhaustion from the back-to-back fighting on the battlefield and Vepar’s powerful magic, he is easily defeated by the Archdemon. Sam is backed into a corner when Vepar activates a spell shooting beam of magical energy to kill him. Just when Sam is going to be hit, Alice materializes and activates a magical barrier in her hands to shield Sam. Holding the barrier to protect Sam, Alice berates Sam, asking if he wants them both to die. She tells him to get up and fight, but Sam can barely stand. Alice complains that she has to do everything herself. Alice completely blocks the beam of magical energy Vepar fired, and in retaliation uses a spell to seal and bind Vepar. The spell works and binds Vepar from moving. Alice orders Sam to attack, but as soon as Sam is about to land an attack, Vepar breaks free from the spell and shoots a giant ball of fire at them. Sam recoils back and Alice appears in front of him again to try to block the ball of fire, but it’s too strong and she’s still recovering from blocking the other spell. The ball of fire breaks her barrier and Alice and Sam are thrown back.

Sam and Alice lay on the ground as they recover from the last hit. They see Vepar coming closer and start to prepare for another spell. Sam asks Alice if she is okay, and she says she’s fine, but their going to have to do something or this is the end. Sam uses all his remaining strength to stand up, but can barely move, none the less fight. Sam glares at Vepar and swears, saying there has to be something they can do. Alice thinks for a moment, getting up and telling Sam there is something they can try. Sam asks her what it is, and she responds by telling him it is merging together. Sam believes she is joking, until she asks if he trusts her. He turns to look at Alice for a second, before saying he trusts her. She says then this should work. She tells him she will explain the nitty gritty details later, but they have to get the fusion down now. He asks her what he needs to do. She Tells him to focus his magical energy at his core and think of their bond, and she will use her magic to activate a spell and combine their magical energy, triggering the transformation. He follows her instruction as focuses while in a fight stance. Vepar sees them try something, and taunts them as he is about to unleash his magic attack. With Sam in the stance and Alice behind him, she activates the spell, merge her magical energy and body with his, as Vepar launches his magical attack on them. Sam and Alice transform in an explosion of energy as Vepar's attack destroys the area around them. Vepar stops to laugh and gloat as it appears, he has defeated them, but out of the smoke of the destruction, Sam in a new demonic form darts out and attacks Vepar with his sword, catching him completely off guard. Vepar says this is impossible, as Sam stands ready to fight across from him. Sam, speaking with his and Alice's voice combined, makes a witty remark as the fight begins anew. This transitions into the next phase of the Count Bain boss fight, fight against Vepar's True form, using the new Demonic form you have just unlocked for Sam.